

Keyboard Instruments in Sweden

Göran Grahn,

Stiftelsen Musikkulturens Främjande

Scenkonstmuseet, Stockholm

Alltogether 6 000 instruments of which about 350 are keyboards. At the moment all are in storage and the future museum of performing arts is likely to have a smaller portion on display.

Stiftelsen Musikkulturens Främjande

75 keyboard instruments of which a rather great part are on display. 3 of them are playable, all others available for research, mostly not touched in the last 150 years.

Klaverens Hus

182 pianos, 166 squares 33 grands 161 reed organs

Other museums, palaces and manor houses

Keyboards in private possession

Around 250 organs in churches built before 1860

Around 300 organs in churches built 1860-1930

